

2. The White Western Hotel

In the 1920s, Susie Neer and Will White constructed the Western Hotel, Restaurant, General Store, and Meat Market, which they operated for several years.

AT TOP: Shows the business in it's heyday. The Phillips Food Market is now housed in the Nielsen/Fromm Building with the C.A. Long Mercantile at left (c1940s).

MIDDLE PHOTO: The Western Hotel and the Nielsen/Fromm Building shown after the Columbus Day Storm of 1962.

BOTTOM PHOTO: A modern photo of The White Western Hotel with the historic Masterson House on the left (Photo credit: Lance Nix)